

1920's Slang

The young people in the 1920's had their own slang words and sayings just like you do today. Below are some slang phrases from the 1920's, can you match the phrases to the meaning. Draw a line between the phrase and the meaning you think goes with it.

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| 1. You slay me. | Going to town clothes. |
| 2. Glad Rags | Doing something in high style. |
| 3. Flapper | None of your business. |
| 4. Don't take any wooden nickels. | You're so annoying! |
| 5. None of your beeswax. | An outsider. |
| 6. It's the berries! | The genuine artifact. |
| 7. Putting on the Ritz. | A stylish girl with a short dress. |
| 8. You're such a pill! | A flapper's dad. |
| 9. Real McCoy | Don't do anything stupid. |
| 10. Palooka | Cool. |
| 11. Carry a torch. | That's Funny. |
| 12. The Cat's Meow. | It's the best! |
| 13. Dapper | To have a crush on. |

Answer Key

